The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-19 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No. 7407923 to Wiedemann et al. (Wiedemann). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the packaged detergent composition of Wiedemann discloses the compartments, compositions and rigid spacer claimed by the present invention.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-12, 14-15 and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Edwards et al. (WO 93/08095) (Edwards).

Edwards discloses a water-soluble container comprising a first compartment (formed between 1 and 6) containing a first composition (3), a second compartment (formed between 4 and 6) containing a second composition (5) and a rigid spacer (sheet 4) located at least in the first compartment, the bottom wall of sheet 4 (a wall of the second compartment) is prevented from contacting the bottom wall of sheet 1 (a wall of the first compartment).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 13-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bruno (3324993) in view of Edwards (WO 93/08095).

Bruno discloses a container comprising a first compartment (container formed by 14 and 18) containing air (a first composition), a second compartment (bottle 50) and a rigid spacer (element 48 or 56) located in the first compartment, as shown in Fig. 4, the spacer 48 to the right of the bottle spaces the first compartment wall section to the right of spacer 48 from the second compartment wall section to the left of spacer 48. Bruno discloses the invention except for the container being water-soluble and the composition in the second bottle. Official notice is taken that the second bottle could be filled with a liquid composition such as wine. It would have been obvious to add a second composition to the bottle to add to the attraction of the gift. Edwards discloses a water-soluble container. It would have been obvious to modify the outer container of Bruno to be water soluble to enhance the degradable feature of allowing the container to dissolve in water, thus performing an opening process by placing in water and allowing the contents to release into water which is easier than disassembling the package by hand and taking the contents out individually.

Claims 13 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Edwards in view of Bruno.

Edwards discloses the invention except for the spherical shape of the spacer of claim 13 and the more than one spacer of claim 16. Bruno teaches spherical shaped spacers (elements 48 or 56). It would have been obvious to modify the container to have spherical shaped spacers to provide for an attractive package that is aesthetically pleasing to look at and offers a gift of fruit, candy or both. The combination is further motivated by the separation and positioning that elements 48 and 56 provide in spacing a bottle toward the center of a package.
